The right of interment, erection of memorials and the reservation of grave spaces are exclusive to residents of Denmead or those whose name at any time has been on the Register of Electors during five years prior to death upon payment as set out in the Scale of Fees. Persons residing in Residential Care Homes, Nursing Homes and Hospitals outside of Denmead who were, prior to their removal thereto, inhabitants of Denmead will be classed as residents.

At the discretion of the Council these services may be extended to non-parishioners on payment of the appropriate Non Resident fee. Should there be any query regarding these rights the Non Resident fee must be paid, refundable if residency is proven and accepted by the Council.
